

Madi's Mission

Training, adventure, and sharing Jesus across Europe

Going where the people are, carrying the love God has shown me.

For years I've dreamed of serving on the mission field, and after a lot of prayer I'm saying yes. I've been accepted to Youth With A Mission's Backpack Europe Discipleship Training School. On January 10, I begin in Paris.

We'll learn, worship, and grow together, then meet people in the streets, hostels, and gathering places of urban Europe to share the hope of Jesus.

Thank you for standing with me. ~ Madi
